

The Caldicott Principles

1. Justify the purpose

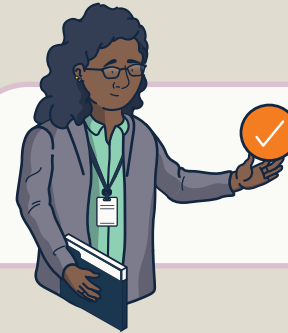

2. Only use when absolutely necessary

3. Use the minimum necessary confidential information

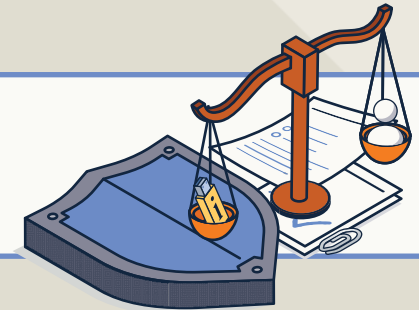

4. Access should be on a strict need-to-know basis

5. Everyone with access should be aware of their responsibilities

6. Comply with the law

7. The duty to share information is as important as the duty to protect it

8. Inform patients and service users about how their confidential information is used
