

What is Prepacked for Direct Sale (PPDS) Food?

Use the flowchart below to help you answer this question for the food you offer. For a food to be PPDS, it must meet all the criteria set out below:

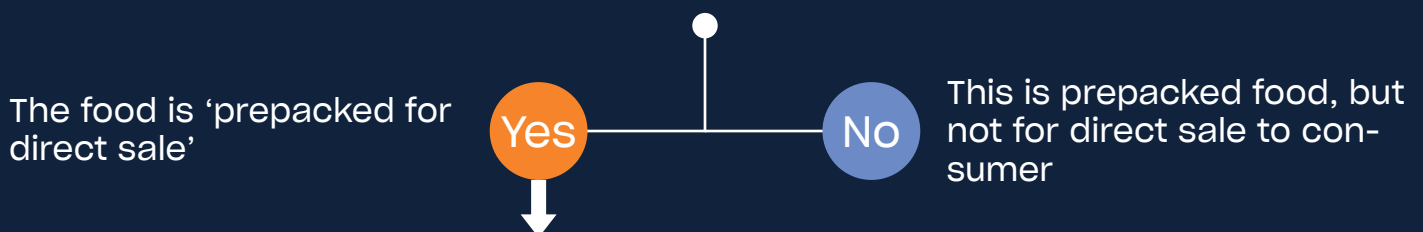

Is the food presented to the consumer in packaging?

Is it packaged before the consumer selects or orders it?

Is the food packaged at the same place where it is sold to the consumer?

If the answers to all three questions are yes, the food is:
